Bringing Europe closer to its citizens

The European Documentation Center (EDC) is a lively space dedicated to learning about the European Union. Its mission is to make Europe tangible and accessible to everyone—citizens, students, teachers, and local associations.

A lively and interactive space

Each visit gives you the opportunity to ask questions about Europe and understand its direct impact on your daily life.

At the EDC, you can:

- Explore official EU publications
- Access digital resources
- Participate in interactive workshops
- Obtain teaching materials

STEER-NWE

Integrated transport solutions to steer NWE's just energy transition

Objectives

Using digital tools and community-based co-creation, STEER-NWE will empower public authorities to develop integrated, energy efficient, and inclusive e-carsharing approaches. Following a dual peer-to-peer approach, it will pilot 3 novel complementary approaches to e-carsharing, combining digital tools with the optimisation of public spaces, housing, energy grids & governance models.

Schuman Traineeships - Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Frequently Asked Questions

Schuman Traineeships in the European Parliament

1. Can I send a spontaneous application?

No, the European Parliament does not accept spontaneous applications. The European Parliament opens applications for traineeships twice a year:

- you can apply from 1 to 31 October, for traineeships starting 1 March and ending 31 July;
- you can apply from 1 to 31 May, for traineeships starting 1 October and ending 28 or 29 February.

2. What qualifications do I need in order to apply for a Schuman traineeship?

Depending on the requirements of the given position, you need a full degree or its equivalent attesting the successful completion of the first cycle of a higher education study programme (at least EQF level 6) or a vocational education qualification obtained in a Member State of the European Union (minimum duration of two years of studies and corresponding to EQF levels 3, 4 or 5.) Please note that only a limited number of Schuman traineeships are offered to candidates holding a vocational education qualification.
